Services for Contract Manufacturing

At GFT, we adhere to transparency, business ethics, honesty, and commitment, which improves services and adds value for our contract manufacturer and private label business partners.

Contract/private Label Manufacturing

We provide you with contract manufacturing services for a variety of our ready-to-use food and beverage items. All of our goods are produced by stringent manufacturing standards.

All of our ingredients must pass through our meticulous quality-checking processes for us to be satisfied. To ensure that you receive the best products, we also employ a number of the strict safety checks.

How We Assist You

You can entrust our devoted food & development team with the task of creating safe, useful products. We will ensure adherence to cGMP guidelines and applicable laws.

Costs associated with product development and formulation can be greatly reduced. With us, you can also save money on investments in R&D, food packaging, quality assurance, and other areas.

Do you wish to try our products? Let's start small with fair MOQs in conventional packaging. In the creation of every one of our products, we only use the best ingredients.
